

WELL-BEING AND WELL-BECOMING IN SCHOOLS RESEARCH INITIATIVE

wellbeinginschools.ca

Symposium

*How Do Children and Youth Experience Flourishing in Schools?
Centering Student Voices*

Event Schedule: Friday, December 6, 2019

- 8:30-9:00 Refreshments and Registration (Room 200)
- 9:00-9:05 Land Acknowledgement and Welcome (David Mandzuk, Dean Faculty of Education) (Room 200)
- 9:05-9:15 Opening Remarks (Thomas Falkenberg, Associate Dean Graduate Programs and Research) (Room 200)
- 9:15-9:30 Keynote Address (Heather Krepski, PhD(c)) (Room 200)
Providing the goods for well-being in schools: The role of student voice and autonomy
- 9:30-10:30 A. Facilitated theme-based discussions
B. Facilitated theme-based discussions
- 10:30-10:45 Coffee break (Room 200)
- 10:45-11:30 C. Division-based discussions (Room 200)
- 11:30-12:15 Lunch (Room 200)
- 12:00-13:00 Youth Session
- Exploring Power Relations: Arts-Based Youth Session* (Graham Lea and Bonface Beti, University of Manitoba) (Rm 340)

12:15-13:00 Research Presentation Sessions

- A. Assessing an Education System for the Provision of Student Voice (Thomas Falkenberg and Heather Krepski, University of Manitoba)
(Room 313)
- B. Providing opportunities for student voice: A nature-based approach to inquiry and well-being (Michael Link, University of Winnipeg)
(Room 326)
- C. Empowering student agency, health, and well-being using the formula funding model: How Manitoba school divisions are providing additional opportunities for students (Lesley Eblie-Trudel, University of Winnipeg)
(Room 327)

13:15-14:00 Closing Session (Room 200)

- Youth and Participant Activities (Graham Lea and Bonface Beti, University of Manitoba)
- Closing remarks